

The one note of
TiNiRiMOTE

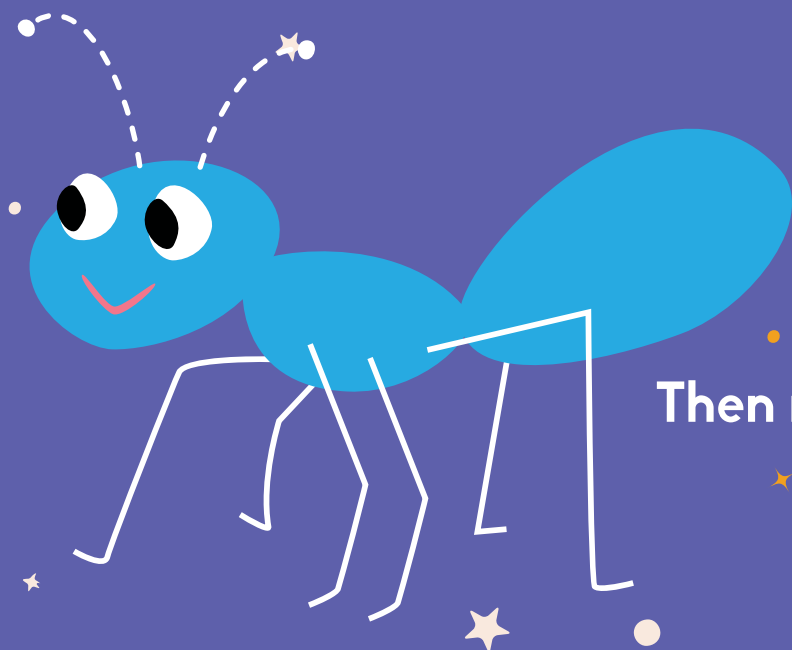

Ruby and Laaitie
Were watching TV.

There were frogs in RED BOTTLES
And dots on a tree,

And TIGERS from toyland,
And lions from France,

“And jellybeans dancing

"What else?" Ruby yawned.
So they flicked to a place
Where GIANT BLUE ANTS
Walked in deep outer space.

Then mommy called,

"Ruby, it's time for your TEA,
You GO CALL your dad
And SWITCH OFF the TV!"

Ruby aimed the REMOTE like a wand at the screen,
And the ants DISAPPEARED like they had never been.

Then all of a sudden she heard a small SQUEAK,
And TiNiRiMote control started to speak...

SQUEAK

“Hey, it's all very well that you USE ME to flick
From channel to channel, it's really quite SLICK.
But don't be MISTAKEN and don't be misled,
The TV's NOT OFF and the power's not dead.
You must switch off the TV at the TV itself,
And leave me ALONE to just rest on the shelf.”

"Hey Ruby," said Laaitie, "She's spot on, you know.
We're WASTING electricity and that's a big no-no,

The TV's not switched OFF
If you're just USING the remote.
You have to go right up to it,
So make a MENTAL note:

SWITCH OFF the TV at the TV set.

We'll remember FOREVER, we'll NEVER forget."

Then after her tea
And before it got DARK,
Sweet Ruby and Laaitie
Went off to the park,

QUACK

HA
DA

QUACK

And rode all around
In the cool evening air,
And saw QUACKING DUCKS
And a ha de da pair.

And pink ICE CREAM donuts,
And sunsets with poodles,
And BLUE MOONS and cartoons,
And curly wet noodles.

And that's when electricity
Was saved for an hour or two,
And Ruby and Laaitie felt charged...
What the POWER OF PLAY can do!
